

Adversary

Adversary in the NT is found 5 times. Adversaries is found in the NT 5 times.

There are differences in the translations from Greek to English that can lead to a misunderstanding of a verse.

If the translators did not fully understand the meaning of what is being said, especially from a deeper perspective in understanding, how correct is your understanding? This can also be said for the writer.

Luke 21:15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

Luke 13:17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

1Co 16:9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

Php 1:28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

Adversaries in the Greek; G480 ἀντρίκειμαι From G473 and G2749; to lie opposite, that is, be adverse (figuratively repugnant) to: - adversary, be contrary, oppose.

Heb 10:27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

1Ti 5:14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

Adversary in the Greek for 1Ti 5:14;

G480 ἀντρίκειμαι From G473 and G2749; to lie opposite, that is, be adverse (figuratively repugnant) to: - adversary, be contrary, oppose.

When you look at the differences in the those four verses, from the English perspective an adversary is implying that there are outside influences. When in fact, the reference is to the adversary to be oneself. This can be acknowledged by the Hebrew 10:27 scripture.

Adversary in the four verses make reference to ones own self-ego.
